

Jenna Pratt
prattj1@msu.edu

Professional Goals:

I am hoping to become a secondary English and history teacher. I am specifically interested in utilizing all types of culture and immersing them into the classroom through different activities.

Education:

- 2016 Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Bachelor of Arts Degree: English Major/History Minor
- 2011 Laingsburg High School, Laingsburg, MI

Pre-Internship Field Experiences:

- Fall 2015- Present Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Placement included 2 hours a week observation at the GED program in Holden Hall as well as tutoring one-on-one with students in the subjects of math and English.
- Fall 2014 Haslett Middle School, Haslett, MI
Placement included two hours a week observation as well as working with 7th grade students and reading in groups and one-on-one in an English classroom.
- Fall 2013 Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI, 4 hours/week
Placement included 4 hours a week observation as well as working on college writing with International students in a Preparation for College Writing class. Prepared and taught a lesson each week that related to writing skills

Teaching Related Work

- 2012-2013 SpringHill Camps Craft Counselor, Ewart, MI,
Lead craft instructor for 6-9th grade campers and adapted lessons to students' learning styles and levels of proficiency.
- 2013 Spring Break Mission Trip, Mountain Mission School in Virginia.
Worked with other college students on housekeeping and painting for the school.
Also led a lesson in a 8th grade social studies classroom.

Other Work Experience:

- 2013-Present Student Supervisor, Sparty's at Michigan State University,
Learned valuable leaders and time management skills.

Awards or Scholarships Received:

- 2014-Present Michigan State University Dean's List
- 2011 Laingsburg High School National Honor Society

Personal Interests: Studied literature abroad in London and Paris for 6 weeks, singing, ukulele playing, writing, cycling, and track and field experience with a desire to coach.